

Sweet Talk of the Town

Read on for local wedding news you can use

■ Crafty ladies: head to West Ashley's SpaceCraft Studios (843/284-6253; SpaceCraftStudios.com), which offers DIY classes in everything from terrariums (hello, centerpiece) to embroidery and much, much more. Have a wedding craft but need the workspace for you—and your 'maids? Book time there and the craftacular queens will be ready to walk you through whatever task is at hand—and they'll let you use their artsy equipment. Nice.

SpaceCraft Studios

Laura Bush and will certainly give you the white-glove treatment, too.

■ You know you'll look great in a snow-white 1961 Rolls Royce limo, and that your groom would be thrilled with such a getaway car. So whether you're heading back and forth from church to ceremony, or just want to scoot away from your reception in style, check out ACW Limo's (843/763-3296; ACWLimo.com) latest set of wheels.

■ Keys for Hope (843/270-5722; Facebook.com/KeysForHope) is also ready to add their crafty touch to your wedding. Founded by Mount Pleasant schoolkids, the group has raised $30,000-plus for Charleston's homeless shelter, Crisis Ministries, by decorating and selling keys, which they say symbolize shelter. Brides can commission keys dressed in their wedding colors or style and gift them to guests with a note explaining a donation has been made in their honor.

PHOTOGRAPHS BY BRITTANY CALLAHAN

■ The etiquette specialists at Dulles Designs (843/805-7166; DullesDesigns.com) have not only remodeled their Church Street stationery shop, but they've also welcomed a new staffer, Brook Holladay Peters. Brook served as director of presidential messages for President George W. Bush and First Lady

Tent your events,
Top your tables,
Wow your guests...

~ SPECIAL EVENT RENTALS SINCE 1983 ~

www.hughesrental.com

TENTS • CHAIRS • LINENS • LIGHTING • DINING SERVICE

1345 Bowman Road, Mount Pleasant, SC 29464 | 843.881.7368